In the reference first read above, Government, based on the recommendation of High Court of Andhra Pradesh during March & May, 2013, issued orders appointing 12 working / former adhoc FTC Dist. Judges as regular Dist. Judges (Entry Level) under direct recruitment category in AP State Judicial Services.

The Registrar General / FAC Registrar (Rectt.), High Court of A.P., in their letter read above, while referring the report of Dist. Judge, Chittoor has stated that Smt. B. Swapna, formerly Ad-hoc Fast Tract Court Dist. Judge, who has been appointed as regular Dist. Judge (Entry Level) and posted as XI Addl. Dist. & Sessions Judge, Piler, Chittoor Dist. has neither assumed charge of her post nor sent any intimation explaining the reasons for her non-joining the post. The High Court has issued an Official memorandum directing her to assume charge of the said post at Piler within one week from the date of receipt of the Memo., The memorandum served on the individual on 19-10-2013. However, Smt. B. Swapna, former adhoc FTC court Dist. In the light of the said circumstances the Reg. General / FAC Registrar (Recruitment) High Court of A.P., conveyed the decision of High Court to cancel the appointment of Smt. B. Swapna and requested to issue necessary orders deleting her name from the selected candidates.

After careful examination of the matter, the Governor of Andhra Pradesh hereby cancels the appointment of Smt. B. Swapna, as Addl. Dist.
